Prohibited Persons Disclaimer

What makes me prohibited from possessing a firearm?

Section 21 of the Firearms Act 1968 prohibits a person from possession of any type of firearm if they have been given a custodial sentence when convicted of a criminal offence or have received a suspended sentence.

If you have received a custodial sentence of 3 months or more, but less than 3 years, then you are prohibited for a period of 5 years from the date you are released.

If you have received a custodial sentence of 3 years or more, then you are prohibited from possessing firearms for life.

If you been sentenced to 3 months imprisonment or more and the sentence is suspended, then you are prohibited for a period of 5 years commencing 2 days after the date of the sentence.

The prohibition may be lifted on application to the Crown Court, for advice please consult a solicitor.

If you have any concerns about eligibility to own or use a firearm, or require advice about legal issues surrounding the possession and use of firearms, ammunition or explosives, contact West Yorkshire Police Firearms Licensing Department on 01924 292310
